

Terms and conditions:

Enrolment can be cancelled by notifying the School, under the following terms and conditions:

If cancellation takes place before the course begins or during the first SEVEN DAYS of the course, the full amount will be returned to the student, except the part proportional to the services used.

If cancellation takes place SEVEN DAYS after the beginning of the course, NO FEES will be returned.

*In cases where the ELE USAL School has worked on seeking visas or lodging for the student and that student then cancels enrolment, the school reserves the right to charge €150 in administration fees.

The School reserves the right to:

Cancel a course if the number of enrollments does not meet the minimum number required. When a course is cancelled, the full amount paid will be returned to the student. Substitute teachers during a course in exceptional circumstances.

Student teachers may sporadically participate in the courses. Change the timetable of some of the classes, in exceptional cases and with prior notification.
